

CLARRY RESIGNS AS DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL, AND HUNT WILL BE ACTING

FENWICK, LAW CLERK, CALLED FROM DUTY, TOO

Inspector of Legal Offices to Continue to Do His Own Work in Addition.

MASTER-IN-CHAMBERS NEW POST FOR CLARRY

Hunt Has Had a Most Successful Career in the Legal Profession Here.

L. F. Clarry, deputy attorney-general of Alberta for the past three years and four months, resigned this morning, and a general shuffling-up on the department will be necessary, both on this account and because G. P. O. Fenwick, law clerk, received a wire from his former home in New Brunswick to the effect that his mother was seriously ill, and he leaves for there tonight.

J. D. Hunt, inspector of legal offices, will take over the duties of Mr. Clarry's office on Monday. The position, which probably is an ad hoc one for a time at least, as Mr. Clarry and Mr. Fenwick, who is Mr. Clarry's chief assistant, are leaving at the same time. Mr. Hunt will also continue for the present to conduct his own branch of the department.

Mr. Clarry, it is stated, has been offered the position of master-in-chambers at Calgary. This is practically synonymous to a judgeship, but unlike a judge the master-in-chambers sits on cases every day, though not for final decision. Mr. Clarry, however, would not confirm the rumor this morning. In fact he would say nothing definite except that he had sent in his resignation this morning.

Before being appointed deputy attorney-general, Mr. Clarry practiced law in Calgary. At present A. V. Hunt acts as master-in-chambers at both Calgary and Edmonton, three days a week at each place, and hereafter he will devote all of the week to Edmonton, while Mr. Clarry will devote his whole time to Calgary.

Mr. Hunt has had a most successful career in the legal profession, particularly since coming to Edmonton over a year ago to act as clerk of the legislature, but principally for health reasons, as he was the senior partner in a thriving law business in Winnipeg for eight years before that time, previous to which he practiced at Carberry, Manitoba for 12 years. He has been in the west since 1881 and has a happy faculty of making friends with practically everyone with whom he comes in contact, while his ability as a legal practitioner is unquestioned. He is gifted with what is known as the judicial mind or legal temperament.

LOCKED IN SHACK LITTLE ONES MEET AN AWFUL DEATH

Boy and Girl Aged Four and Five Years Cremated at Vegreville.

MUST HAVE CLASPED HANDS WHEN NEAR END

Parents Were in Town Shopping When the Tragedy Occurred.

Locked in the house and unable to open the door, a little boy and girl aged four and five years, the children of Henri Monvoisin, a Frenchman who resides about half a mile from Vegreville, were burned to death shortly before noon today. The father and mother had gone to the town to do some shopping, and in order that their children would not get out of the house had locked the door. It appears that they had been gone for about half an hour when the shuck was noticed to be on fire. The alarm was rung in, and although the Vegreville firemen made a very quick turn-out the building was in ruins before they got there. On the return of the parents they saw the house wrecked and the firemen carrying out the charred remains of their children.

How the fire started is not known, but it is thought that the children played with the stove and that they knocked over some burning wood which started the blaze.

So far as can be ascertained the children were left in bed, but that they did not meet death while they slept is proved by the fact that their remains were found near the door of the building. When they met their end the little ones have clasped hands in their fright for such was their position when they were discovered.

Monvoisin is a laborer and has lived in Vegreville for some years. His wife is very ill as the result of the shock she received on seeing the remains of her children being brought out of the house.

BIG FARM CONCERN WILL SHIP LOADS OF HOGS WEEKLY

Wainwright, Alta., Feb. 14.—Word has been received here from England that John W. Wood will ship here in the spring with $175,000 additional capital to develop 18,000 acres of land, owned in this district, by the Wood-Wainwright Estate company, an allied farming line.

Grain growing operations will not be the only thing on which the company will depend. Large amounts will be invested in live stock of all kinds, to include upwards of 200 head of thoroughbred Shorthorn cattle and a large number of hogs. It is said that Mr. Wood expects a scale as to be able to ship a carload a week, in which event one year's business will amount to $100,000 in this line alone.

J.D. HUNT
INSPECTOR OF LEGAL OFFICES

HOLD LOVER OF GIRL WHO KILLED HIS WIFE.

Michael Bondura, 24, of Vegreville, was yesterday fined $100 and costs, and two months with hard labor in the Fort Saskatchewan jail, for the murder of his wife, Wynona, who died of diphtheria on October 19 last. The case was brought nominally by Inspector James B. Lindsay, under the criminal code, section 242a.

As it was a case of diphtheria, it came to the attention of the provincial department of health, and after it was found out that Bondura had secured the services of any competent medical practitioner or taken means to cure his child of the disease, the health department put the case in the hands of the department of neglected children, and R. B. Chadwick, of that department, took steps to prosecute, so as to show people who perhaps are not aware of the seriousness of the offense.

Dr. W. C. Ludlow, of the provincial health department, said this morning that there are many cases of this kind occurring in the province, and it is the policy of the department concerned to make it a deterrent to others who might be similarly inclined to let cases of serious diseases like diphtheria go without attention.

The Newark, New Jersey, authorities have decided to keep Charles I. Manning, the wealthy garage proprietor, under surveillance until he has definitely ascertained how Hazel Herdman secured the revolver with which she killed Mrs. Harriet Manning, his wife. The auto dealer protests that he knew nothing of Miss Herdman's intention of killing his estranged wife until she admitted that she had shot Mrs. Manning because the latter scorned her repeated appeals that she divorce her husband.

Manning and the girl never made any secret of their relation and it was generally known that Miss Herdman was the mother of a baby, but Mrs. Manning withheld the liberty that would allow Manning to make his sweetheart his legal wife. He had often told the girl that the only thing that made their marriage impossible was the failure of his wife to divorce him. Her ever-increasing disgrace drove the girl desperate and she killed the woman whose hatred had placed her in such a predicament.

SAYS CANADA SHOULD NOT BE SHUT OUT BECAUSE IT HAS BETTER RIFLE SERVICE

Might as Well Return To Old Styled Weapons If War Were Declared

Dominion Ought Not to be Discriminated Against For Having a Superior Arm Than the Obsolete Lee-Enfield, Is the Point Made at the National Bismley Meeting in London

London, Feb. 14.—Presiding today at a crowded meeting of the National Rifle association which controls the Bismley meeting, Lord Chesham, the chairman, in his opening remarks announced that the vital changes that had been finally decided upon regarding this year's Bismley regulations were the following: (1) The war office requirement of shooting 25 targets in match rifle competition. The targets will have a central 24 inches in diameter, to be marked, which will count six. In service rifle competition the bulls eye at 500 yards will be reduced from 12 to 10 inches.

The chairman announced that the meeting will be held from July 13 to 25 inclusive. Although nothing was said about the aperture sight, the vital point for Canadian, it is generally understood from the remarks of the chairman that the door is still open, and that for this year at least, the Canadian service rifle and sight will not be barred. At any rate the matter is still open for negotiations. The opinion was freely expressed that this meeting by representative of the best riflemen in the United Kingdom, that Canada should not be shut out because of her progressive policy in having a better service arm than the obsolete Lee-Enfield.

"If we were fighting a European nation you might just as well require that they shall return their small arms to the arsenal and bring out their discarded rifles so as to give the British soldier a fair show," remarked a well known colonel.

The regulation as to sighting shots is as follows: That before actual competitors in which each shot is separately signalled and which is not for "shoulder to shoulder" suggested that the sight question be taken, but that there be no sighting shot before competitors in which each shot is not separately signalled, in team competitions, before the shooting and before "shoulder to shoulder" shooting. The principal change from the existing regulation is that hitherto the sighting shot has been convertible; that is to say that if it is a higher scoring part of the target it may be counted in the score.

The discussion is expected when the meeting comes to deal with the proposed new war office regulation affecting use of the aperture sight. A strong body of opinion holds that it is better to make some sacrifice in principle rather than lose the presence of the Canadian contingent. It is suggested that the sight question be left as it is for a few years, until the new British service rifle is issued, when there is little doubt this will be provided with some form of aperture sight.

UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM IS NOW SOLVED IN CITY

Relief Officer Has Been Able to Offer Work to Every Applicant.

PROFESSIONAL AGITATORS HAVE BEEN WEASELED OUT

Married and Local Men Given Preference on Construction Work.

Due to sewer construction south side of the city, the Public Works Commissioner B. J. Saunders, and due to firm action by Safety and Health Commissioner M. G. Booth in weeding out professional agitators, the unemployed situation in Edmonton has been relieved.

The relief officer has been able to hand a job to every man calling on one. True, some refused jobs offered, but the great majority have found employment.

There are at work on south side sewer construction nearly 200 men. The gang counted 180 yesterday. Good progress is being made considering conditions. Edmonton residents, married men, are given preference on city construction work, but many who have been want to be found in the crowd that demanded free board and lodgings from the city are to be found with the gangs.

While there were 140 men at work yesterday, more than 200 men are employed on this construction work. This is brought about by having city crews, or shifts. The work started by having the men work four hours. One shift worked morning and one afternoon. It was found that this required considerable time to be wasted going to and from the job. Therefore the public works commissioner changed the system, permitting one shift to work eight hours one day and one shift to work eight hours the next day, shift work.

Garipey Delivers Address

Hon. Wilfrid Garipey, minister of municipalities, addressed the members of the St. Anthony Roman Catholic church choir on Wednesday night in the assembly hall of the Strathcona high school, the occasion being a concert which was greatly enjoyed by the very large attendance. Mr. Garipey declared that Alberta is the youngest nation in the world, that success depended rather on character, education, determination and energy. He predicted a glorious future for Edmonton, and praised the work that was being done by several women's organizations in the city.

Two months of hard labor was the sentence that was imposed by Magistrate Massie on Mah Wang, a Chinese who was arrested in the court rooming house last night, and who is alleged to have been there for the purpose of theft.

THE ONLY SOLUTION TO THE RAILWAY PROBLEM

Up to the end of the last fiscal year, June 30, 1913, according to the statement of the dominion government, the Canadian people had given in cash subsidies to the railways in Canada the sum of $163,251,459. In addition to the money grants, land grants have been given to the extent of 43,561,000 acres, the average valuation of which is at the very least calculation $6 an acre, making the aggregate money value of the land granted to railways together with the bonuses granted in cash equal approximately $425,000,000, or nearly $17,000 per mile for every mile of the 27,000 miles which constitute the privately-owned railway system in the Dominion of Canada at the present time.

Still in addition to this, governments, federal and provincial, have lent the public credit toward the guaranteeing of bonds to the extent of $275,000,000, or more than $10,000 per mile for every mile of privately-owned road in the dominion.

Added together, the public have furnished, in cash, land and credit, $27,000 per mile for 27,000 miles of railway, all of which is, or will be when completed, in private hands and operated for private profit.

The grand aggregate of gratuities by the Canadian people, in cash, land and credits, is more than seven hundred million dollars; a sum considerably greater than the national debt and equal to the aggregate value of the wheat crop of the Dominion for the past ten years.

In the face of these insane gratuities, in which, all things considered, it has shared as handsomely as the others, the Canadian Northern now proposes to come back to the Dominion government with a demand for $25,000,000 more, and the basis for this demand is the same as when, last year, they came and got $17,000,000 out of the public treasury. It is this, that if the government does not come through with the money the present owners cannot carry out their programme of construction and the country will be done a tremendous financial injury.

As every dollar contributed to a railway constitutes a double debt upon the public, the dollar which the government gives being invariably borrowed and interest bearing, and the dollar which the railway receives being capitalized by the railway against the public and dividend bearing, the greatest financial disaster which can overtake the Canadian people, evidently, is to continue the crazy course which has been followed in the past in dealing with railways.

In the matter of the Canadian Northern there is only one solution which will protect the people of the Dominion of Canada and that is for the government to take over the railway as a national enterprise.

If the public must pay for it anyway, why should they not own it? And why should they pay for it twice in order to permit private parties to own it when by owning it themselves they have to pay for it but once?

THE SITUATION IN THE STREET RAILWAY

The Journal is producing statistics to show that the mileage of the Edmonton street railway is less in proportion to population than that of Calgary, and that therefore the claim that the street railway in this city has been over-extended will not hold water.

The only thing proven by the Journal's statistics is how wrong was the action of the civic administration which the Journal supported in building extensions into subdivisions where there was no traffic. The trouble with the figures showing comparative mileage is that no such figures can prove that the street railway got a square deal when it was saddled with such non-producers as the Forty-Second street line, for instance, against which the Journal had not a word of protest when the administration with which that paper was in accord was proposing the same at the city hall.

To compare the capitalization per mile of the Edmonton street railway with that of Calgary and to deduce therefrom that the Edmonton railway cost too much is absurd. Calgary is built on an arid gravel bed, the very ideal foundation for a roadbed, with ballast lying all about at no cost whatever. Edmonton is built on mud—the kind that grows the wheat but not the kind that makes a substantial foundation for a street railway—and every mile of track in this city has to be concreted before it can be brought to efficiency.

The Edmonton street railway will pay when the commissioners get into the street railway the capital it is paying interest on but not getting the use of and when there is a management in charge that knows how to manage. The management at the present time is absurd; the schedule is a travesty against public convenience and the relation which have existed between the management and the men has been consistently one of acrimony and pettish incitement to acrimony.

This is the situation which is up to Commissioners Chalmers. He has it in his own hands and it is his business to make good.

THE LIABILITY AGAINST THE CITIZENS

The Winnipeg street railway, which was offered to the city some three years ago at $12,000,000, has just closed a year which shows gross earnings of over four million dollars.

The four million dollars which the Winnipeg street railway earns comes out of the citizens of Winnipeg in the form of fares. They are paying for the railway whether they own it or not. Every bond against the street railway is just as much a liability against the citizens—who represent "traffic"—as though the bonds actually bore the city's imprimatur. The money to pay the interest comes from the same source—out of the pockets of the citizens.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

W. R. Brock, head of the W. R. Brock company, one of the largest wholesale dry goods houses in Canada, reaches his seventy-eighth birthday today. His career has been a long and interesting one. Owing to the death of his father when he was quite young, he had to give up his purpose of becoming a lawyer and enter the business life instead. He started at the very bottom rung of the ladder, being at one time simply a clerk in a village dry goods store. By hard work he gradually climbed higher.

He was for many years principal of the college school in Fredericton, N. B., after which he received the appointment of Upper Canada College, Toronto. He is particularly famous for his advocacy of the cause of Imperial Unity and is one of the small group of men who are constantly speaking and writing on the subject. He has written several books, among which his life of Sir John A. Macdonald in the Macdonalds Canada series stands out prominently.

Dr. Anna Shaw, Suffrage Leader, is 67 Today

When Rev. Anna Howard Shaw, M. A., president of the National Woman's Suffrage association, was a girl of four, arrived in America from her native England, not a single state in the union gave the fair sex the right to the ballot. She will celebrate her sixty-seventh birthday today, happy in the knowledge that nine states have given women complete voting equality with men, and to a greater or lesser extent, prevail in many other states. For this achievement, accomplished without the adoption of any radical methods, she might be pardoned for congratulating herself, for ever since her girlhood, she has been prominent in the cause, and for a full decade she has been the acknowledged leader of the movement in the United States. Dr. Shaw was born in Newcastle-on-Tyne, England on St. Valentine's day in 1847. After four years in England and four years in Massachusetts, she went with her parents to Michigan, travelling to that backwoods country by canal boat and "spray" schooner. The family was very poor, and the ambitious girl had to work her own way through Algon College, in Michigan, and the theological and medical departments of Boston University. During her student days in Boston she lived in the garrets, ate the crust of poverty, and wore coarse clothing that made her an object of ridicule and still found time to do humanitarian, religious and medical work among Boston's poor. As for herself, she was a simple, but rich in hope, enthusiasm, ambition and the spirit of helpfulness. After completing the theological course, she took up missionary work in the slums she still found that she "had nothing the people wanted." So without any capital but a strong will and a firm faith, she spent four years in studying medicine, so that she might give free treatment to the poor. It was while engaged in this labor that Dr. Shaw reached the conclusion that male government was imperfect, and that the conditions against which she contended could never be permanently improved until women participated in the affairs of state.

FIRST THINGS

Valentine Day.

The first observance of St. Valentine's Day as a day sacred to love and tender misadventures goes back to a period long before the Christian era and the application of the name of the good saint to the festival. Among the ancient Romans the 14th of February was celebrated as the feast of Lupercalia. On that day the young Romans chose their sweethearts for the year. Perfection of the festival was in the choice, which was carried out by means of a lottery. The young men held a meeting, and the names of the maidens in the neighborhood were put into a pile of parchment. Each man in turn drew a name, and the young lady was supposed to submit to the will of her fate and devote herself exclusively to the man, whether she liked him or not. When paganism was overthrown by Christianity the festival of Lupercalia became St. Valentine's Day, so named in honor of the priest and martyr who was executed on the 14th of February in the year 276. It was only because the day of a Valentine's martyrdom fell on the date of the pagan love festival in honor of the god of love, Februus, that St. Valentine became the patron of love.

TODAY WE CELEBRATE

Africans-Honor

Memory of Douglas.

Those 10,000,000 of black brothers and sisters who inhabit Uncle Sam's country will celebrate today the birthday of their racial hero, Frederick Douglass. The eminent negro journalist, diplomat and orator was born a slave in Tuckahoe, Md., in February, 1817, and while the day of the month is not exactly known, the fourteenth is the date generally celebrated and the one accepted by the Frederick Douglass Memorial and Historical association. The latter organization was formed some years ago for the purpose of keeping alive the name and fame of Douglass, and to preserve his home at Anacostia, D. C., as a permanent memorial. Leaders of the negro race in America are already planning a widespread celebration of the centenary of the birth of Douglass this year.

Frederick Douglass was not a pure-blooded African. In fact, he was a white man, and his mother, a mulatto slave, was the daughter of a white man and a black woman. In personal appearance he had many of the characteristics of both his African and Caucasian ancestors. Reared as a slave, he had learned to read and write at an early age, and as a boy he often "orated" before the other slaves, and so played on their emotional natures as to bring

How to Get Rid of Catarrh

A Simple, Safe, Reliable Way and It Costs Nothing to Try.

This preparation of herbs, leaves, flowers and berries (containing no tobacco or habit-forming drugs) is either smoked in an ordinary clean pipe, or smoked, tube, and by drawing the medicated smoke into the mouth and inhaling into the lungs or sending it out through the nostrils in a perfectly controlled manner, it can be eradicated.

It is not unpleasant to use, and at the same time it is entirely harmless, and can be used by man, woman or child.

Just as Catarrh is contracted by breathing cold or dust and germ-laden air, just so this balsamic antiseptic smoking remedy goes to and soothes the parts of the air passages of the head, nose, throat and lungs. It can readily be used by the ordinary treatments, such as sprays, ointments, salves, or liquid or tablet medicines fail—they do not and can not reach all the affected parts.

If you have catarrh of the nose, throat or lungs, choking, stopped-up feeling, colds, catarrhal headaches, if you are given to hawking and spitting, this simple but scientific treatment should cure you.

An illustrated book which goes thoroughly into the whole question of the cause, cure and prevention of catarrh will, upon request, be sent you by Dr. J. W. Blosser, 212 Spadina Ave., Toronto, Canada.

He will also mail you five days' free treatment. You will at once see that it is a wonderful remedy, and as it only costs one dollar for the regular treatment, it is within the reach of everyone. It is not necessary to send any money—simply send your name and address and the booklet and free trial package will be mailed you immediately.

them cheering to their feet. At the age of 15 he was sold to a Baltimore ship-builder. It was a poor bargain for the Baltimore master, but it was a good one for an indifferent workman. After six years in the Maryland metropolis, Douglass, then a youth of 21, made his escape. He settled in New Bedford, Mass., and his impassioned oratory soon attracted the attention of the abolitionists, who judged him to devote his talents and time to the cause of freedom for his people.

Everywhere he went Douglass attracted vast crowds, and while he was occasionally subjected to insults, he

TODAY IN DOMINION HISTORY.

Secularism and sectionalism, religious hatred and racial prejudice, which had so often divided Canadians into warring camps, flamed out again a quarter of a century ago today, when the agitation over the Jesuit estates had its beginning. The province of Quebec had passed a law which settled a dispute of long standing between the province on one hand and the society of Jesus and the Catholic hierarchy on the other. The dominion government found itself between the frying pan and the fire, for disallowal would mean the loss of Quebec to the party, while if the bill were permitted to stand the Ontario Protestants would be largely lost. On February 14, 1889, the parliamentary store broke, when, in reply to a question from J. A. Haron, the minister of justice, the Jesuit estates act was legally and constitutionally sound, and should be left to operation. Mr. Thompson was immediately attacked from hundreds of Protestant pulpits, and some of the leading divines of the country joined in the secular and journalistic warfare. The government in general and the minister of justice in particular. The fiercely denunciations of the Catholic hierarchy meetings in Quebec at the time of the Bill controversy marked the gathering of the Jesuit estates act. Gradually the sectarian sentiment subsided, and a settlement was effected that was satisfactory to all but the few irreconcilable parts.

was for the most part treated with admiration and respect. He made lecture tours of England, Scotland and Ireland, returning to America, he established a weekly newspaper in Rochester, N. Y. He was accused of complicity in John Brown's raid, and sought refuge in England. When war broke out between the states, Douglass raised two regiments of negro troops in Massachusetts.

After the war Douglass published a newspaper in Washington, and held several public positions, including that of minister to Haiti. He died in Washington on February 20, 1895. There have been, and perhaps are, greater negroes than Douglass; but among the negroes of his race he reigns supreme.

OUR BOY SCOUTS

By Scoutmaster Effenberger.

Scout Outlook in Edmonton, is not more prosperous this city-day? This is the question that is puzzling the Scout officers of this city. It is not because there are not plenty of boys here, or that there are not any officers, (although more are needed). We think that the solution to this problem lies in the fact that there isn't a proper organization in Edmonton to date, a live organization that has the interest of the Scout movement at heart, one that will give assistance to any Scoutmaster that needs it. His Lordship, the Bishop of Edmonton, has signified his intention to take the position of District Commissioner as soon as a suitable man is found. The sole reason for his resigning is on account of his many duties which really demand more time than he has at his disposal and we can only say that if His Lordship does resign, Edmonton Scouts will lose one of their best friends. However, this should not deter any Scoutmaster from doing his utmost to further the cause and help to firmly establish the movement in this city. While in conversation with a Scoutmaster recently, the editor of these columns inquired as to the welfare of his troop, the reply that he received was: "We are not doing anything new, we have dropped the movement, at least until the spring, we may possibly take it up again when the warm weather comes." Now we know for a fact that this troop was one of the best and oldest in the city and it is a mighty pity that the work was allowed to drop, as the greatest difficulty will be experienced in starting it again. I know this from experience as I have undertaken to organize nine troops, some of the troops that had once existed, but which had been disbanded, and I can assure you that invariably the disbanded troops were the hardest to start again. We understand that another effort will be made to organize the local movement, it is hoped that the instrument in bringing this about will meet with success as upon the success of this body the future of the Scout movement in Edmonton depends.

Local Scout News
Westminster—This troop has settled down to hard pen work after their recent concert. From now until the summer camp they will be hard at work on their penmanship. The troop has been found necessary to change the meeting nights to Tuesday evening. It has not been decided yet whether this troop will be represented at the Calgary Grand Rally in April.

Dr. McQueen's Own—Signalling is the order of the day in this troop at present, most of the boys making good progress at this and there should be some good signallers by the time the summer camp is held. This troop unfortunately lost some of their library books and some other things when a steam pipe burst in their club room and spoiled a number of things. This troop is starting a whirlwind campaign for new members and it is hoped to raise the number of this troop to fifty members.
Holy Trinity—This troop meets regularly on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Last Tuesday evening was spent in a basketball practice and Thursday evening was spent in arranging for the Arts and Crafts competition also physical drill and signalling. This troop has made great progress in the last few months and is ranking one of the best in the city.

Scout News From Here And There
Toronto—The Fifth Troop of the Fifth Toronto Troop put in a very good supper on Friday last week, and the occasion was rendered more memorable by the reception of the Thirty-eighth Troop. This troop have decided to amalgamate with the Fifth Toronto Troop, the result being the forming of one strong patrol (the Wolves), their acting Scoutmaster, Mr. B. Pooler, returning to the Fifth A.M. After the supper the boys played a new auctioneer's game, which proved most interesting.
At hockey the Fifth Intermediates beat the Forty-sixth Battalion Division in a snowstorm on Saturday, after having put in two hours clearing the snow. The score was 4-0 in 20 minutes' overtime, but the play was closer than the score indicates. On Monday the Juniors were defeated by the Second Troop, Juniors by 2-0, which about represents the relative strength of the teams. The postponed Junior game with the Fifth Troop takes place on Tuesday. The Intermediates play the Second Troop today at Little Vic at 2 p.m. and at 7 p.m. the Seniors play Avenue Road Presbyterians.

Dr. Moyle is conducting his ambulance class every Wednesday at 4:32 p.m.

Ottawa—The fifth troop held a sliding party last evening at Ray's Hill, in Ottawa South. The scouts assembled to the number of 24, at A. S. M. Mathewson's home. The party then proceeded to Ray's Hill, where the boys spent a very enjoyable evening. The entire party returned to Mr. Mathewson's home for supper.

The 6th (All Saints) troop are the proud possessors of a very fine hockey team and are on the war path for the sale of any and every pair of skates. This would be a very fine chance for the team of the Rosemount Ave. (11th) troop, to show their skill in the noble game.

The 22nd (St. John's) troop has the honor of starting the first patrol of the year. This patrol was organized on Wednesday last and was founded last Thursday evening, and is now thoroughly organized. It is composed of, at present, some eight or nine boys, whose ages range from 9 to 12 years. The patrol is under the command of a tenderfoot, Stanley Thompson, who is one of the most promising boys in the troop.

Scoutmaster Thompson, command of the patrol on Monday night, of this week. The members of this patrol will be entirely at the disposal of the remainder of the troop and their training will rest almost entirely in the hands of the Scoutmaster, Mr. J. R. Smith and those of the patrol leader.

The 7th troop held a very successful meeting last Friday evening at the Scout headquarters, in the basement of the Dominion Methodist church. During the course of the evening several forms of wrestling were demonstrated and proved a great success. A hike had been planned for last Saturday, but owing to the soft weather it was considered that it would not be advisable to go. Today, weather permitting, the boys will go to the mental farm. A slight drive is being planned for the beginning of February.

Christ Church Troop—There was a splendid attendance of Scouts at last Monday's meeting of the 16th (Christ Church) Troop. Among the visitors were Scoutmaster Davies, of the 9th Troop; Scout Gordon Goodhouse, of the Aylmer Troop; and Ernest Law, a future member of the Tenth.

The real work of the evening was handled on the "Pioneers" slide, on which the troop is going to specialize. The hockey committee, composed of Patrol Leader, Marshall, Barrow and Scouts Douglas Currie and Dick Edgar, announced that a game had been arranged for the Friday night of this week.

Scoutmaster Humphrys states that his committee deserves credit for not only their energy, but for the laudable way in which they handle the players. They are now arranging games with other troops. The 16th would also welcome a game of basketball with any other troop.

Twenty-three Scouts of this troop have put in applications for examination in the "Pioneers" slide, and will be examined next Monday evening.

Two members of the "Tenth," namely, Corporal Wilbur Pinney and Scout Bart Kelly, are members of the champion Olafsen School Juniors, holders of the "Olafsen trophy." Needless to say, their Scoutmaster is very proud of this fact.

Houston, U.S.A.—A Scout in Houston, Texas, who is a newsworthy by occupation, recently reported a rescue which offered a fine example of common sense and presence of mind.

A youth had been mad enough to throw a wire over the live wire of the electric light system. He received a shock and was unable to let go, while his hand was burned through to the bone. The Scout in the neighborhood was also received a shock which knocked him down. Boy Scout training came to the aid of the youth, who was a non-conductor of electricity, and using several of the newspapers which he was delivering, he succeeded in dragging the lad safely, subsequently carrying him to his home and rendering first aid.

Japan—The boys of Japan are just as eager as our Scouts to be recognized as American Scouts, although boys scouts are new to the Japanese public. They never saw a patrol of Scouts until late last fall when the first patrol of boy scouts was organized in Yokohama. Ever since that time the Scout movement in Japan has been making rapid strides. A small one, consisting of only two patrols, one of which is named "The Scouts," the other "The Scouts of Japan." Boys did not have time enough to get excited over boy scouts, but the fact that many boys are eagerly preparing for the coming examination shows the interest of the Japanese boys in the Scout movement. In a sense, the boy scouts are not new to Japan, as during the feudal period young boys used to form companies and train themselves in the art of physical and military training. These boys—generally from twelve to eighteen years old—were trained for glorious showing in the time of battle. Under the command of their master was a boy, they were trained to be brave soldiers and bravely and willingly played their part of duty in protecting the lives of their masters, the daimyo, in fighting for their Emperor and Lords and in saving their community from the invasion of enemies.

Physicists Have Produced Neon By Electrical Means
London, Feb. 14.—It is nearly a year since Dr. Collie and Mr. Patterson, the physicists, made up their minds that they had produced the element neon by electrical means. Dr. Collie lecturing before the Royal Institution tonight, showed some of the most brilliant experiments ever seen. Probably no audience had ever seen until tonight an electrical discharge passing through an atmosphere of neon.

Dr. Collie had a tube containing the pure gas at very low pressure, and he put in this tube a battery of ten cells, the whole apparatus was filled with an exquisite crimson light. The professor then made a series of careful demonstrations to prove that the same glow could be gotten from the vessel at credit not having been contaminated with air or any other neon containing gas.

TWO PROPOSITIONS OFFERED WAINWRIGHT COUNCIL BY GAS MEN
Wainwright, Alta., Feb. 14.—Two different gas propositions are now before the town council of Wainwright, one from W. R. Martin, of Medicine Hat, and another from two Edmonton men. Mr. Martin appeared before the council at its last meeting and submitted a proposed agreement. It is not yet known which of the two will be accepted, but it is said that the one from Edmonton is most favorable, although it does not contain some satisfactory clauses included in Mr. Martin's. This is one of the most important questions that have yet come before the local council.

Do Not Delay

Every day you delay in availing yourself of the Human Bake Oven treatment, you are heedlessly passing by something you have sought since first attacked by tortures of the dreaded diseases resulting from bad blood and poor circulation.

The Human Bake Oven treatment, given at the Edmonton Sanatorium, 634 Fourth street, has proved a boon to thousands of sufferers from Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Gout and kindred ailments in all parts of the civilized world—it has the approval of our foremost medical men.

Joy to Many

There is nothing mysterious about the Human Bake Oven treatment—it is Nature's own remedy. It has given joy and health to many sufferers. What it has done and is doing today for others it will do for you. The treatment is based upon scientific principles—it is safe, sane and efficient.

Dr. Victor F. Mueller, a highly successful medical practitioner of many years' residence in Milwaukee, Wis., writes in discussing upon the influence of intense dry hot air on painful and inflamed joints:

"The Human Bake Oven treatment relieves pain, reduces swelling, absorbs effusion and deposits of urate of soda and restores the mobility of stiffened joints."

Air Is Heated

The Human Bake Oven successfully combats the germs of any disease for which bad blood and poor circulation are responsible. The oven is an ingenious mechanical device in which the temperature is raised as high as 500 degrees Fahrenheit, under which the patients experience the most delightful sensations.

To understand how extremely high is the degree of temperature reached, it must be remembered that the normal temperature of the blood is 98 degrees and that water boils at 212 degrees. Five hundred degrees of dry air is applied with perfect safety and comfort.

Are You Sick?

If you are sick—suffering untold tortures from ailments mentioned above—you owe it to yourself and your family to investigate the Human Bake Oven treatment without delay. Let us give you fresh health.

We have on file in our office hundreds of unsolicited testimonials from grateful men and women, many of them residents of Edmonton and the surrounding country, who will gladly furnish any statement or answer about the Human Bake Oven treatment.

COMPLAINTS ABOUT THE NEW SCHEDULE

Has Been in Operation Now One Week—Much Criticism Forthcoming
WOODROFFE DEFENDS IT
Says Inspector Lost Position for Falling Down on Job.

After one week's operation of the street railway under the new schedule, it cannot be said that it has lived up to the press notices. Unusual weather conditions and confusion incident to changing the routing of all the cars may have been responsible for any disappointment suffered by anybody. The superintendent says that there has been no change in the schedule, as street gossip has been wont to declare recently.

The new schedule has not been changed; there are no more cars operated than heretofore; it was because an inspector "fell down on the job" that there were no provisions made to handle the theater crowd last night and the inspector lost his position on that failure. The cars operating now are getting the traffic, the superintendent ascertaining where there is traffic to be had if service were supplied, no declares W. T. Woodroffe, superintendent of the street railway department.

A different arrangement has been made on routes one—which is the Twenty-fourth-Avant-Packing plant line—by putting on 12 regular cars and eight trippers instead of operating nine regular and 14 trippers. On the other routes, several trippers were made regular and the total number operating on the line reduced.

That the street railway department of traffic of each car on each route, these records are being kept. The cars are getting the traffic, the superintendent ascertaining where there is traffic to be had if service were supplied, no declares W. T. Woodroffe, superintendent of the street railway department.

That the street railway department has been having its hands full in getting the new schedule going has been evident from the start. Weather conditions have been unfavorable, in addition to the difficulties. When four or five hundred people emerged from the Empire theater last night, the street car to meet the emergency the new schedule and other things pertaining to railroading were discussed instead of the show.

WHIST DRIVE UNDER AUSPICES OF S. O. E. PROVED A GREAT SUCCESS

Even the cold and stormy weather did not deter a large crowd from being in attendance at the Sons of England (south side) whist drive on Thursday evening. The drive was particularly noticeable, too, that a goodly number of the players were from the north side of the river, they were such good purpose that the conductor on the Jasper avenue car was overheard to complain about the amount of freight that was being carried by some of his passengers.

Mr. Ingram set an example by carrying off a pretty four-piece plan and mounted set to adorn her table. With this in view, there were 121. Miss G. Ripley followed with an aggregate of 110 points and a glass berry bowl with hand-down dishes. Miss Jean Kiseack with her consolation prize of a cute little glass cruet and a bouquet of flowers. It is a wonder whether the usual order of things had been reversed and the best prize reserved for the last.

Bro. C. W. Chapman, the popular financial secretary of Lodge Edmonton, as soon as he learned of the gathering's first prize, presented of a brass bound writing pad with accessories, set himself to compile the handsome score of 121. Bro. Frest, also of Lodge Edmonton "rose on a chair to deliver an address to the club, to a china tobacco jar with the score of 100. Bro. E. B. Brown "body," a metal ash tray.

Coffee and cake was paid respect to by the company and the closing of the national anthem, ended one of the most enjoyable evenings of the year.

Members are reminded that next Thursday evening is the regular business meeting and it is hoped that all will endeavor to be present as there is considerable important business to be disposed of. Lodge Edmonton members and visiting brothers warmly welcomed.

Painted Gun at Detective.

The first was of having opium in his possession and the second and more serious charge was of pointing a loaded revolver at Detective Coleman. The magistrate fined the accused $25 and costs for having opium in his possession and $100 and costs on the charge of pointing a loaded revolver. In passing sentence on the latter charge, the magistrate would impose the limit and was sorry that he could not sentence him to three months. After the hearing, another section of the criminal code which he would have imposed the sentence.

Mr. Wade was fined $15 and costs for being found in a room where opium was kept.

Unknown Man Frozen.
An unknown man was found frozen to death under the canopy of the Lament, Alberta. So far the man has not been identified, no one having seen a man around town answering the description. Details are very meagre, but there is a suspicion of foul play.

Military Dance.
A Squadron 19th Alberta Dragoons will give their popular dance on Tuesday next, to be held in the Separate school hall. Dancing will commence at 8:30 prompt.

ON THE VERGE OF A BREAK-DOWN

Wrecked Strength and Shattered Nerves Completely Restored By "Fruit-a-lives", The Famous Medicine Made From Fruit.

"I can highly recommend 'Fruit-a-lives' as they did me an awful lot of good and I highly about them. About four years ago I commenced taking 'Fruit-a-lives' for a general break-down and they did me a world of good. We bought a good many dollars' worth but it was money well spent because they did all that you claim for them. Their action is so pleasant, compared with other laxatives, that I found 'Fruit-a-lives' pleasure, as well as health, in taking them. They seemed to me to be particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action, and I find that some other women are starting taking 'Fruit-a-lives' after reading my letter, and if they do, I am satisfied the results will be the same as in my own case."

A blood purifier, a general tonic, a builder of headland strength, "Fruit-a-lives" is one of the great discoveries of the century in curative medicine. One of the valuable properties of "Fruit-a-lives" is its marvellous cleansing powers. When these tablets are taken, they on the three great eliminating organs of the body—the bowels, kidneys and skin. "Fruit-a-lives" keeps the system free of waste matter, prevents the formation of an excess of uric acid, and insures the free flow of the digestive juices, makes digestion complete and enables the system to absorb and assimilate an abundance of nourishment from the food eaten.

"Fruit-a-lives" builds up, invigorates, strengthens the whole system. As a general tonic, there is nothing else quite so good. And these tablets are so mild in action, so pleasant to take, that they are particularly suited to women, on account of their mild and gentle action. ## Marvelous Balsamic Essences Cure Catarrh No Drugs To Take—A Direct Breathing Cure

Statistics Prove Ninety-seven Per Cent of Canada's Population is Infected With the Germs of Catarrh.

This disease is most dangerous owing to its tendency to extend to the bronchial tubes and lungs, where it causes Consumption. Unfortunately, the patient has had faith in sprays, ointments and snuffs, which can't possibly cure, and in consequence catarrh becomes a chronic condition. Science is advancing every day and fortunately a remedy has been discovered that not only cures but prevents Catarrh. This new treatment, Catarrhozone, has sufficient power to kill the germs of Bronchitis, Catarrh and Asthma. It contains pure pine essence.

For Asthma and Bronchial irritation nothing can equal Catarrhozone—every physician and druggist says so, and we advise our readers to try this treatment if suffering with a winter ill. The complete outfit costs $1.00, medium size 50c, at all dealers.

Will Receive Reports.
The morning session will, in all probability, be given over to reports of the officers and executive and consideration thereof, while the election of officers for the ensuing year will likely take place in the afternoon session. The first event of the series was the visit of the Edmonton, N. M. and N. D. A. Announcements. The Northumberland and Durham Association announce the following fixtures for this month: grand ball, February 27th, in the Separate School hall, Third street; Friday night, February 27th, at 8 p.m., in the council chamber, Civic Block. ## REPORT THAT SHOP IS UNFAIR ONE IS DENIED BY WORKERS

At a meeting of the compositors and pressmen of the Keadles Press Ltd.
(numbering 24 union men), held on Friday evening last, the following resolution was unanimously passed:
"Whereas, we, the employees of the above firm feel that an injustice has been done the said firm through the erroneous report that appeared Feb. 11 to the effect that this shop was an unfair one; therefore, we desire to emphatically rebut the statement in question, and at the same time to declare that every employee in our department is paid above the scale called for by our respective local unions.

Furthermore, the leaders union has been requested to supply union men for the bindery of the firm, but has refused to do so, and the union men needed; therefore, the union has no moral right to speak of the shop as an unfair one.

It is further resolved that this resolution be sent to his worship, the mayor and councilors, the leaders union, also to the Capital Bulletin and Journal for publication.

The trail which seems to have been most in favor so far is that by Edward Smith, who points to Lake Saskatoon is 250 miles. This route is very rough, and although there are stopping places all the way, settlers should make their own feed for the first 150 miles. The completion of the E. D. & B. C. to Smith, however, has had the effect of making a large part of the traffic go that way, via Swiftwater and Graveland. Freight cars obtained, Mr.
Bagnall says, all along this route except for the 45 miles between West Prairie and Burgen lake, and there is only one bad hill, at the Little Smoky river. Freighters carry loads weighing from 2,000 to 3,000 pounds but it is not expected that good weighing will prevail after March 10, either for gettlers or freighters and those intending to go in should start before that date.

Two Principle Points

The two principle points in the district are Grande Prairie City and Lake Saskatoon, called Prairie City and Saskatoon respectively, for convenience. Lake Saskatoon is located at the southwest corner of the lake of that name, while Grande Prairie City is about 15 miles east, both being in the municipality of near Lake.
The mounted police headquarters for the district are at Lake Saskatoon.
At the end of the government telegraph line while among the business institutions already established are the Bank of Commerce, Revolution Brothers, Peace River Trading company, a flour mill, butcher shop, blacksmith shop, livery barns and lumber yards. There is also a grain elevator, Dr. Macdonald, located at this point and drug store will probably start this spring.

Grande Prairie City has the Union bank, Selkirk Trading company, Dalton and Gould, mounted police headquarters, dominion land office for the Peace River country, livery barns, lumber yards, blacksmith shop, butcher shop, flour mill, a hospital and university hotels and a hospital under the auspices of the Presbyterian mission.

Mail comes from Edmonton twice a week, the trip taking ten or twelve days. Work is already under way on a telephone system, the company having obtained a franchise from the municipality and 145 names having been handed in as probable subscribers.

Many Churches Erected Church work is being carried on energetically by the various denominations. The Baptists have a church and parsonage between Lake Saskatoon and Hermit lake and are contemplating the erection of another at River Creek, while sites at other points have been secured. The Presbyterians have a church at Grande Prairie City, and the minister, Rev. J. P. Porter, holds services at six other points in the surrounding district. The Methodists have a building at River Creek and another owned by them at Beaver Lake, Lake Saskatoon, Richmond Hill, near Lake and Cut Bank, and the Catholics have their headquarters at Grande Prairie City.
